TABANKA
SCUBA DIVING INC

Good to know

To get certified as PADI Advanced Open Water Diver you have to hold a valid (Junior) Open Water Diver License or equivalent entry level certification.

Bring swimwear, sun- and rain protection. Water, snacks and lunch on board are provided. Don't bring valuables to a boat.

To check your fitness for scuba diving we will send you a medical questionnaire.

Weather can effect the schedule. Don't make too tight plans. An extra day can be useful.

Certified friends of yours will be diving from the same boat. Check our Fun Dive Deals!

Non-Diving friends can join our daily boat trips and share your experience from above.

The availability of Night Dives depends on conditions - safety first.

FAQ's

Where to find us?

Tabanka Divers are based at Lugadia Beach, only a 5 Minutes ride from El Nido town. Tell drivers to drop you at OUTPOST Hostel, that's just next door. We highly recommend this area called CorongCorong for your stay.

Bad weather or bad stomach?

Diving is possible even on a rainy day. But safety first: If we have to cancel a trip we re-schedule you or give you a partial refund of the course fee paid to us. If you cancel on short notice for any reason: payments are not refundable. Re-booking fee is 1000p per person.

Flying and Diving?

You will soon learn that after scuba diving you can not take a commercial flight for at least 18hours. Flying prior diving has no effect. Please schedule your flights accordingly.
